*Call To Worship (Those who are comfortable may stand)*
Behold, we stand on holy ground.

O give thanks to the Lord.

Make known God's deeds among the peoples.

The strength and power of God's love echoes through all ages to meet us here in this place and time.

O give thanks to the Lord.

Make known God's deeds among the peoples.

I AM WHO I AM calls us to remember the Son sent to redeem us.

O give thanks to the Lord.

Make known God's deeds among the peoples.

We are ardent in spirit and in our love for one another.

We persevere in prayer and overcome evil with good.

O give thanks to the Lord.

Make known God's deeds among the peoples.

Let us enter into worship to rejoice in hope,
and take up the cross of Christ in our hearts. Amen!

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

**Hymn* #147 "All Things Bright and Beautiful"

Offering (Unison prayer)

Praise the Lord for these wonderful gifts, given from the bounty of our lives! Dedicate these gifts to the service of Christ in the world. With them we will hold fast to what is good – extending hospitality to strangers, and removing stumbling blocks for each other in the world. Amen.

Scripture for September 13, 2009

Exodus 3:1-15 (New Living Translation)

Moses and the Burning Bush

<sup>1</sup> One day Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian. He led the flock far into the wilderness and came to Sinai, the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup> There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a blazing fire from the middle of a bush. Moses stared in amazement. Though the bush was engulfed in flames, it didn't burn up. <sup>3</sup> "This is amazing," Moses said to himself. "Why isn't that bush burning up? I must go see it."

<sup>4</sup> When the LORD saw Moses coming to take a closer look, God called to him from the middle of the bush, "Moses! Moses!"

"Here I am!" Moses replied.

<sup>5</sup> "Do not come any closer," the LORD warned. "Take off your sandals, for you are standing on holy ground. <sup>6</sup> I am the God of your father—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." When Moses heard this, he covered his face because he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD told him, "I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their cries of distress because of their harsh slave drivers. Yes, I am aware of their suffering. <sup>8</sup> So I have come down to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians and lead them out of Egypt into their own fertile and spacious land. It is a land flowing with milk and honey—the land where the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites now live. <sup>9</sup> Look! The cry of the people of Israel has reached me, and I have seen how harshly the Egyptians abuse them. <sup>10</sup> Now go, for I am sending you to Pharaoh. You must lead my people Israel out of Egypt."

<sup>11</sup> But Moses protested to God, "Who am I to appear before Pharaoh? Who am I to lead the people of Israel out of Egypt?"

<sup>12</sup> God answered, "I will be with you. And this is your sign that I am the one who has sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God at this very mountain."

<sup>13</sup> But Moses protested, "If I go to the people of Israel and tell them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' they will ask me, 'What is his name?' Then what should I tell them?"

<sup>14</sup> God replied to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM. Say this to the people of Israel: I AM has sent me to you." <sup>15</sup> God also said to Moses, "Say this to the people of Israel: Yahweh, the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.

This is my eternal name,
my name to remember for all generations.
