

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Luke 12:13-21 from The New Living Translation

Parable of the Rich Fool

Then someone called from the crowd, "Teacher, please tell my brother to divide our father's estate with me."

Jesus replied, "Friend, who made me a judge over you to decide such things as that?" Then he said, "Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own."

Then he told them a story: "A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. He said to himself, 'What should I do? I don't have room for all my crops.' Then he said, 'I know! I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I'll have room enough to store all my wheat and other goods. And I'll sit back and say to myself, "My friend, you have enough stored away for years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!"'

"But God said to him, 'You fool! You will die this very night. Then who will get everything you worked for?'

"Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God."

Message "Guard Against Greed" Pastor Karen Bruins

Unison Prayer

Merciful God,

warm us with your compassion.

Forgive us when we turn away from your love.

Gather us closer when we pull away from you.

Clothe us with your grace,

when we surround ourselves with worldly desires and passions.

Renew our zeal to follow you when you see us pursue values that destroy our lives and the lives of others around us. Roar with mighty love, dear God, that we might hear your voice and heed your call. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Offering

Invitation to the Offering (based on Luke 12)

Leader: Christ warns us: "Be on guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Therefore, let us store up for ourselves treasures in heaven as we share our earthly treasures with a world in need.

Unison Prayer

Thank you for your steadfast love and generous compassion. Thank you that we are invited to share your generous love and compassion with a world in need. Bless and use these gifts that your love may be known in our neighborhood and the surrounding communities, that your compassion may touch our neighbors in need through the Rosemount Family Resource Center, that your peace would rule in our hearts and your mercy be our habit each day.

Communion

Invitation to Communion (based on Psalm 107 and Colossians 3)

Leader: Come, all who are thirsty for compassion, for in Christ Jesus your thirst will be quenched. Come, all who hunger for justice and hope, for in Christ, you will be fed. Come, all who yearn for love and community, for in the body of Christ, you are loved!

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord is here.

God's Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to offer thanks and praise.

We give you thanks, O God,
through your beloved servant Jesus Christ,
through whom you have created all things.

By the power of the Holy Spirit Christ was born of Mary,
and shared our human nature.

With loving arms outstretched upon the cross for us,
Jesus broke the chains of evil and destruction.

By the resurrection your will was fulfilled
and you gathered a holy people to offer you praise.

Now with all creation we raise our voices
to proclaim your glory:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

To you indeed be glory, almighty God,
because on the night before he died,
your Son, Jesus Christ, took bread;
when he had given you thanks,
he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body
which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup;

when he had given you thanks,
he gave it to them and said:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood poured out for you;
do this as often as you drink it
to remember me.

God of hope and joy,
we thank you for counting us worthy
to stand in your presence and serve you.
With this bread and this cup
we proclaim the mystery or our faith.

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come in glory.

Therefore, loving God,
recalling now Christ's death and resurrection,
we ask you to accept
this our sacrifice of praise.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us
and our celebration,
that we may be fed with the body and blood of your Son
and be filled with your life and goodness.
Strengthen us to do your work,
and to be your body in the world.
Unite us in Christ
and give us your peace.

May we praise you
and give you glory through your First-born, Jesus Christ.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in your holy Church,
we worship you, O God,
in songs of everlasting praise.

Blessing, honor and glory be yours,
here and everywhere,
now and forever. Amen

Announcements / Passing of the Peace

Hymn #577 "God of Grace"
